THE PROGRAM

The Wisconsin Association of Health Underwriters Foundation (W.A.H.U.) has established a scholarship program to assist active members' children who plan to continue education in college or vocational school programs. Scholarships are offered each year for full-time study at an accredited institution of the student's choice.

This scholarship program is administered by Scholarship Management Services, a department of Scholarship America. Scholarship America is a national nonprofit educational support and student aid service organization that seeks to involve and assist the private sector in expanding educational opportunities and encouraging educational achievement. Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, gender, disability, or national origin.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants to the James S. Vogel Memorial Scholarship Program must be -

- Dependent* children, age 24 and under, of active members of the Wisconsin Association of Health Underwriters with a minimum of one year membership as of the application deadline date.

**Dependent children are defined as natural and legally adopted children or stepchildren living in the member's household or primarily supported by the member.*

- High school seniors or graduates who plan to enroll or students who are already enrolled in a full-time** undergraduate course of study at an accredited two- or four-year college or university, or vocational-technical school.

AWARDS

If selected as a recipient, the student will receive a

$1,000 award. Up to four (4) awards will be granted each year. Awards are not renewable, but students may reapply to the program each year they meet eligibility requirements.

Awards are for undergraduate study only.

APPLICATION

Interested students must complete the attached application and mail it along with a current, complete official transcript of grades to Scholarship America postmarked no later than November 10. On-line transcripts and grade reports are not acceptable. Applicants will receive acknowledgment of receipt of their application. If an acknowledgment card is not received within three weeks, applicants may call Scholarship America to verify that the application has been received.

Applicants are responsible for gathering and submitting all necessary information. Applications are evaluated on the information supplied; therefore, answer all questions as completely as possible. Incomplete applications will not be evaluated. All information received is considered confidential and is reviewed only by Scholarship America.

SELECTION OF RECIPIENTS

Scholarship recipients are selected on the basis of academic record, demonstrated leadership and participation in school and community activities, honors, work experience, statement of goals and aspirations, unusual personal or family circumstances, and an outside appraisal. Financial need is not considered.

Selection of recipients is made by Scholarship America. In no instance does any officer or member of Wisconsin Association of Health Underwriters or W.A.H.U. Foundation play a part in the selection. All applicants agree to accept the decision of Scholarship America as final.

Applicants will be notified in late December. Not all applicants to the program will be selected as recipients.

Students may reapply to the program each year they meet eligibility requirements.

PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship America processes James S. Vogel Memorial scholarship payments on behalf W.A.H.U. Foundation. The payment will be made in one installment on August 15. A check is mailed to each recipient's home address and made payable to the school for the student.

OBLIGATIONS

Recipients have no obligation to W.A.H.U. Foundation. They are, however, required to supply Scholarship America with complete transcripts when requested and to notify Scholarship America of any changes of address, school enrollment, or other relevant information.

REVISIONS

W.A.H.U. Foundation reserves the right to review the conditions and procedures of this scholarship program and to make changes at any time including termination of the program.
